HELD IN DEATH OF
ANDREW DROTLEFF

Freedom Comes As Prisoner Awaited New Trial

George Ludwig, 58, who had been held in connection with the death of his landlady, Andrew Drotleff, 59, here July 23, 1939, was freed today when Common Pleas Judge W. F. Lones at Lisbon acted on Prosecutor Karl T. Stouffer's motion that the manslaughter charge against the defendant be nolle.

Defense counsel, Atty. W. Edmund Peters, had asked that the case be dismissed on the grounds that there was insufficient evidence.

Ludwig, who had been indicted on a charge of manslaughter after the grand jury ignored a murder charge, had been held in jail waiting a new trial which was scheduled for early this month.

Police Chief Ralph Stoffer charged Ludwig with murder, on the basis of circumstantial evidence, after Drotleff's bloodstained body was found in the bedroom of the home the men shared at 877 Granite st.

Ludwig, who reported to police that he discovered Drotleff's body and that he had slept in a barn after failing to gain admission to the home the night Drotleff was said to have been slain, was reported by witnesses to have been quarreling with his landlady while walking home that night.

The courtroom was crowded today by attorneys as Judge Lones heard other motions and demurrers.

Kennedy Resigns London
Post; No Statement
As To Future

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The resignation of Joseph P. Kennedy, ambassador to Great Britain, made a fresh gap today in the war-depleted ranks of United States ambassadors to European nations.

Kennedy announced that he was relinquishing the London post after a White House conference with President Roosevelt yesterday. Pending appointment of a successor—a choice likely to be delayed, Kennedy said Mr. Roosevelt desired him to keep his designation as ambassador, but the envoy made plain he would not return to England in that capacity.

Kennedy's resignation, which had been in the President's hands since Nov. 6, predated by a single day that of William C. Bullitt as ambassador to France. John Cudahy resigned last Thursday as ambassador to Belgium.

Only Two in Europe
At present the United States has only two ambassadors at posts in Europe, Laurence A. Steinhardt in Soviet Russia and Alexander Weddell in Spain.

Kennedy's resignation from the London post he held since 1938 started speculation both as to his successor and as to whether he might be given some other government office. The resignation did not come as a surprise for it was

Banks Distribute
Christmas Funds

Depositors of Christmas savings funds at two Salem banks shared in the distribution of a $67,000 "melen" Saturday as individual checks were sent through the mail.

The $67,000, which went to 2,325 depositors, represented the largest Christmas savings fund on record here.

The previous high, that of $56,000 a year ago, is $11,000 under the present figure, according to the First National and Farmers National banks, which already are advertising their club plans for the new year.

Most of the Yule funds are expected to find their way into Salem stores in exchange for Christmas gifts and other purchases.

The First National bank issued 1,525 checks representing $40,000. The Farmers National bank's $27,000 went to 890 depositors.

Then Seeley died of complications caused by pneumonia.

CENTER SCHOOL
LEVY IS LISTED

Township Is Third To Ask
Special Vote To Keep Classes Going

The Center township rural school district will request a special election on a three-mill operating levy for two years to replace a similar tax that expires this year, W. E. Roberts, county school superintendent, said today at Lisbon.

Two other rural districts — one now closed because of the lack of funds — have scheduled levy votes Dec. 21. They are West and Knox townships, both of which will vote on three-mill levies for two years.

Roberts said the Center district did not consider a levy renewal Nov. 5 because officials believed a tax approved in 1937 did not expire until next year. No funds will be available after December, however, because the budget commission applied the tax a year in advance, Roberts said.

BLAST'S VICTIMS

31 Killed; Rescue Workers
Seeking Last Eight Bodies

(By Associated Press)
CADIZ, Dec. 2.—Workers at the Nelms coal pit turned out today for the burial of the first of 31 blast victims while rescue crews toiled in the gas-filled depths to remove the last eight bodies.

Funeral services were scheduled here at 2 p. m. for Pete Speicher, first of Friday's explosion victims brought out. Twenty-two other bodies were carried to the surface yesterday.

John Mullen, engineer at the Ohio and Pennsylvania Coal company's mine, said four more bodies had been located but that gas and rock falls had prevented their removal. The others have not yet been found.

Mullen said it had been definitely determined that 31 were killed outright by the terrific explosion and buried under tons of rock upwards of 1,500 feet from the entrance to Ohio's deepest shaft mine.

Yule Parade Canceled

Wrapped in canvass, the bodies were brought out yesterday in pairs and placed in the blacksmith shop. Relatives were admitted in small groups to view them. All the victims were badly burned by the blast.

Victims identified in addition to Speicher were: Homer Knox, Ben Mazeroski, Jesse Rayl, Ed Prather, F. H. Woods, Robert Dinger, Leonard Fannin, Bryan Griffith, William Carr, Emerson Howes, Lewis Sedgmer, Steve Nameth, Ora Forns, Dan Smith, Herbert Jarboe, Frank Mazeroski, John Matern, Jules Courtville, Joe Hornyak, David McIntyre, Edgar Marchbank, John Smith and John Bernard.

REPORT IS SENT TO STATE BOARD

"Four Or Five" Establishments Named By Investigators

A "confidential report" was forwarded to the Ohio board of liquor control at Columbus today following visits of state liquor enforcement agents at various Salem liquor establishments and clubs Sunday.

The agents, working out of the Canton district office of the liquor board, made what B. S. Ashworth, agent in charge, described as "a routine check on violations."

Ashworth said his men found "plenty of violations" of the law which prohibits the sale of high power beer and whiskey on Sundays.

"Confidential Report"
No actual arrests were made and the officers, who warned holders of the liquor permits not to become careless in their observance of the rules, and regulations, later compiled a "confidential report" for submission to the state headquarters.

Four or five establishments were named in the report, the liquor agents said, and any action for alleged violation of state liquor laws rests with the Columbus office, it was explained.

The evidence submitted will form the basis of any possible license revocations.

City police did not learn of the "raids" until later in the day.

GERMANS RAID
SOUTHAMPTON;
LOSS IS HEAVY

60,000 Nazi Soldiers Enroute To Rumania To Quell Anarchy

(By Associated Press)
Surrender of 5,000 Italian troops, leaving a huge gap in the center of the 100-mile Balkan war front, was reported in Greek dispatches today, while in the Battle of Britain, the Germans announced a violent new assault on the English shipping port of Southampton.

The Greeks said the wholesale surrender of Premier Mussolini's Fascist legions—the largest seizure of prisoners in the war — had signalled a general Italian retreat in the central sector.

Line Destroyed, Greeks Claim
"The victory, without exaggeration, is of exceptional importance, for the enemy line in this sector has been destroyed and all danger eliminated for us," a Greek dispatch said.

The assault on Southampton (pop. 175,000) interrupted rail communication with London, Nazi quarters said, following up Saturday night's raid, which they asserted had left the big shipping port engulfed in "an ocean of flames."

Hitler's armies were reported on the move, meanwhile, in the troubled Balkans.

Dispatches from the Hungarian-Rumanian frontier said four fresh German divisions — approximately 60,000 men — were passing through Hungary en route to Rumania to quell increasing anarchy in Rumania, the scene last week of bloody green-shirt Iron Guard rioting and mass executions.

Nazi troops in Rumania were previously estimated at 500,000 men. In Budapest, authoritative diplomatic sources said a secret week-end conference between Hitler and Yugoslavia's foreign minister had paved the way for Yugoslavia to join the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo Axis — which already includes Hungary, Rumania and Slovakia.

Previously, Berlin informed quarters said no further signatures were expected at present.

200 Planes in Raid
In the smash at Southampton, the British said about 200 Nazi warplanes roared across the channel, striking singly and in small waves. One of the raiders, it was said, swooped low to spray machine-gun tracer bullets into the houses.

The British Press association said relays of bombers flew over the town, England's third busiest port, and "continued their mission of frightfulness" until early morning. "The damage was considerable," it said. "Areas of the town are in ruins."

Hundreds of steel-helmeted soldiers started the task of demolition in the center of the city while fire-blackened rubble still smoldered.

KEEPING SIDEWALKS CLEAN

Safety and civic pride have been cited frequently in the past as incentives for observing the city ordinance which requires property owners to keep sidewalks clear of snow and ice. One particularly important place where this ordinance should be observed is in the downtown business district, where heavy pedestrian traffic snow tramps the snow into a hard surface, making walking treacherous.

Another good reason is offered by a comparative stranger in Salem who writes on this subject in today's "Our Readers" column. He believes merchants who ignore this sidewalk cleaning duty are hurting their own business, in fact inviting people not to shop in their stores.

It would be difficult to dispute his contention. Every snow that falls, bringing slush and ice, finds several negligent or indolent merchants who not only make walking in front of their stores dangerous, but give a black eye to the entire business section of the city. In the residential districts there may be some good reason why sidewalks are not cleaned promptly in front of residences of aged or infirm people. There can be no such reason, and no valid excuse, for such a condition in the business section.

Usually the offenders are in the minority, but at that there are too many of them. The same thing is true in other seasons when papers and other refuse are left on the sidewalks in front of only a few stores, to be swept up and down the street by the wind. The condition is execrable. Civic pride, if not good business sense, should be sufficient to keep papers, dirt, snow and ice off the business streets.

GREEK WAR RELIEF FUND

The appeal being made here to raise a fund for Greek war relief should bring a ready response. Food and clothing are needed for those whose homeland has been invaded and bombed by the Italian forces.

The Greek War Relief association has set out to raise $10,000,000 to relieve the suffering in the regions devastated by the Italian invasion and in the cities shattered by Italian bombs. America should not permit this little nation, which has struck so valiant a blow for its own freedom and for a cause which is ours, to suffer for lack of food, clothing and medicine.

No goal has been set for the local fund but those who can should respond quickly and generously. The Finnish relief appeal brought a worthy response several months ago. The present appeal is just as important and just as necessary.

GIVE THE EARNEST MAN A CHANCE

A man who has been winning at the sound of profanity for 40 years, Arthur S. Colborne, president of the Anti-Profanity league, confirms a common impression that swearing is getting worse. Mr. Colborne says it isn't just a problem any more of cleaning up the language of mule skinnners but of cleaning up the language of persons who consider themselves above mule skinnners. He founded the Anti-Profanity league, himself, at the beginning of the century, has carried it along all this time and should know what he's talking about even if more people than ever are swearing.

The ---- of it is, they aren't swearing from the ground up. They're doing it because they think it's cute, or because they just don't realize what a bad habit they've developed. Their blasphemy lacks the ring of conviction. What they need is to have their mouths washed out with soap; they have no right to be swearing at all. Profanity should be reserved to earnest souls who get satisfaction out of it, like those who walk into the edges of half-open closet doors in dark bedrooms. It shouldn't be used so lightly that when a blasphemer really has some excuse to tie down the whistle cord he can't think of a ---- thing to say that his 16-year-old daughter hasn't heard ten thousand times before.

EARLY RISING'S INTRINSIC MERIT

Some enterprising news photographers have been snapping pictures of bewildered trainees muddling wretchedly out of bed at 5:45 a. m., which is the army's idea of how to start the day right.

As a small contribution to national defense, here are a few tried and true explanations for early rising: The morning air is better.

There is a lot to do.

The early bird gets the worm.

A man does his best work between breakfast and noon.

It is nice to watch the sun come up.

Lying in bed makes a person lazy.

It is good for people to get up early.

If the trainees will remember these things while rubbing their eyes and muttering, "Pnf," or some other 5:45 a. m. wisecrack, they will find that the only good reason for getting up that early is because someone says it's the rule. 'Twas always thus. That's why there had to be explanations.

For Tuesday, December 3

A STUBBORN chain of adverse configurations among the important planets is observed in this day's astrological chart. Opposition, antagonism, resistance and obstruction may be expected to challenge the utmost powers and talents for overcoming force for impediment, defeat and hostility. The major conflict may come from elders or old institutions.

Those whose birthday it is may encounter a year in which their highest powers for resistance, struggle and fortitude may be called upon to triumph over a succession and variety of antagonistic, undermining and frustrating circumstances, having unhappy reactions on the most intimate relations in life. The emotional upset may be outstanding, calling for special discretion.

A child born on this day will have a very contradictory nature, with many conflicts and struggles beneath a surface of serenity and restraint. While moody or reserved it will be sociable, friendly and sympathetic.

GREEK SUCCESS BOLSTERS BALKANS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Mussolini is making a desperate effort with heavy reinforcements to remedy the already far-reaching effects of his Greek defeat without having to thrust aside pride and appeal to Hitler for help.

A Fascist communique this morning reported that defending Italian troops had thrown back the attacking enemy in one sector. The victorious Greeks, however, claimed to have made important new advances all along their line.

That line, working on a pivot on the Adriatic coast near the Greco-Albanian boundary, is swinging across the mountains and valleys of Albania toward the sea like a windshield wiper.

This astonishing success of the little Greek army against the might of Rome is having a tremendous moral effect on both Britain and the neutral countries of the Balkans.

The Turkish press even claims, with evident relish, that the Nazis have balked in their scheme for assaulting England in the Near East by means of a drive across the Dardanelles. The British already are talking of the possibility of utilizing Greece as the gateway for a grand offensive against the German rear.

All this savors a bit of wishful thinking, of course, but there is no gainsaying that if the Greeks, with British help, can hold their own against Italy, they will have opened up an invaluable base for English operations against the Axis.

The Fascists have got themselves into a predicament from which it would be extremely difficult for Hitler to rescue them at this time. There are only two really feasible forms of help the fuhrer could give his Axis partner—one being with an air fleet and the other the sending of an army against Greece through either Yugoslavia or Bulgaria.

There can be small doubt that the violation of the nervous neutrality of either Yugoslavia or Bulgaria might precipitate a general Balkan upheaval, and that is exactly what der fuhrer has been trying so carefully to avoid.

Concerning Blood Pressure

True Reading Hard To Get, Says Clendening

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

What is your real blood pressure? We know that emotion will cause changes in the heart beat, and the contraction of the small blood vessels, which will modify the pressure—usually raise it. It is a common experience for a candidate for life insurance to go to his own doctor first to have some tests made just to see that everything is all right, and then find at the real examination that the blood pressure is comparatively up.

Dr. Clendening will answer question of general interest only, and then only through his column.

Any such emotional upset will affect the blood pressure. A strange doctor, the nervousness attendant on the outcome—all modify from a perfectly true picture.

Everyone's blood pressure varies throughout the day. In the morning if you have had a good night's rest, it is likely to be at its lowest. The activities of the day raise it a little, but if emotional upsets are added, it raises quite a little. That's why we ask blood pressure patients to be calm—though it is easier said than done. Emotional changes or nervous tension cause all the little blood vessels to contract, and this naturally raises the pressure, because it requires more pressure on the part of the heart to force fluid through narrow, rigid tubes than larger relaxed ones. Of course, the greatest factor in such changes is from age—hardening of the arteries.

Single Reading Valueless

It was some time ago that doctors who study this question found that a single blood pressure reading was of little value compared to a continuous record. The question arises can the patient be trusted to take his own readings? Some doctors say this leads to introspection and creates neurosis. Dr. David Ayman of Boston found in a series of cases that he could teach the patient to take his own blood pressure without difficulty and even if carried out for some time it resulted in no neurosis.

In general, it was found that blood pressure readings taken at home were lower in cases of high blood pressure than the readings taken at the clinic—from 40 to 30 per cent. This would certainly seem to sustain our instinctive view that the presence of the doctor, the circumstances of the examination, fear and apprehension—all tend to raise the pressure.

Home Readings

Perhaps the most valuable result of the method is that the home readings tend to allow us to evaluate treatment better. With so changeable and jump a thing as a blood pressure reading used as a standard, it was difficult to come to clear-cut conclusions as to whether any treatment was doing any good. With the blood pressure reading made at home at more frequent intervals and an atmosphere of more calm, you get results from which the nervous element is to a considerable extent eliminated.

The conclusion is reached that it is quite easy to teach the patient at home to make the readings. Undoubtedly the type of patient must be selected and the instrument could not be turned over to an unstable emotionable person, but for the most, the method should give us valuable data.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

C. E. L.:—"I go to bed at night feeling all right, but wake up about 2 a. m. feeling tired and very thirsty. About 3 a. m. or 4 a. m. I feel like a different person. Have I got night starvation?"

Answer:—It is possible that you have some cyclic nutritional condition that results in symptoms at 2 a. m. It may be a disturbance of your utilization of sugar, which could be easily determined by any doctor by a glucose tolerance test. But the condition seems more a nervous form of insomnia. Things always look worse at night. Half the population gets up thinking they are not going to last through the day but at 4 p. m. they feel fine.

Politician Indicted

Frank McKay

Michigan's Republican "boss," Frank McKay, faces a possible prison term of 50 years, fines totaling $10,000, or both, if convicted in connection with a federal indictment returned against him in Detroit on charges of defrauding Edsel Ford of $9,918. In a second indictment, McKay was accused of engineering a gigantic fraud in state liquor purchases. The true bill alleged that McKay, a Republican national committeeman, obtained from the motor car manufacturer a political campaign contribution to pay bills which in fact did not exist.

Palms, ferns and white mums in pale green vases decorated the altar. Wedding music included the "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn wedding march, a vocal solo, "Ave Maria," by Miss Mary Elizabeth O'Neill. Miss O'Neill, Misses Margaret Entrikin, Ann Sweeney and Margaret Becker sang during the nuptial mass. Following the ceremony, the hymn, "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," was sung.

The bodice had a sweetheart neckline, ornamented with knots of the material and long light-fitting sleeves ending in points over the hands. Clusters of unpressed pleats in the skirt front and back formed the fullness. Her fingertip veil was arranged in a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white prayerbook with marker of gardenias and bouvardia.

The bride's sister wore a gown of aqua-fillet taffeta and illusion, with bodice of the taffeta and bouffant skirt of illusion. She carried gold mums and wore a halfgarland of the flowers in her hair.

Mrs. Munsell, mother of the bride, wore a black sheer gown with lace yoke and sleeves and Mrs. Hoffman, the groom's mother, was in a black dress. They wore corsages of gardenias.

A wedding breakfast was served to 26 guests at the Knotty Pine room in the Lape hotel. The bride's table was decorated with a wedding cake and lighted by tall white tapers in crystal holders. Tables for the guests were decorated with bouquets of white mums.

Theatre Attractions

The film industry pays tribute to America's great football coach, the late "Rock" of Notre Dame, in "Knute Rockne, All American," at the State tonight through Tuesday.

Pat O'Brien portrays the builder of the most famous football teams in history in the story which traces the Rockne career from his early life in Norway through his biggest triumphs in America.

The son of a Norwegian carriage maker, he came to this country as a small boy, grew up in Chicago, where he first learned about football. His love of the game dominated his life, through his college days at Notre Dame and through his later career as coach at the university.

During his college days he perfected the famous forward pass and he became engaged to the woman who, throughout their married life, was his greatest inspiration and encouragement.

His exciting football career, when the unheard of Notre Dame beat Army because of his new forward pass, Dorais to Rockne, his work as assistant football coach, and later head coach at the university where he compiled an unsurpassed record as a coach and leader of boys is movingly presented on the screen. Pat O'Brien's performance is unforgettable.

Kennedy Resigns London Post; No Statement As To Future preceded by a number of such reports which the state department refused to confirm.

Several names have been mentioned for the post. Among those spoken of were Marshall Field, Chicago merchant who has been active in the work of bringing child refugees here; John G. Winant, former governor of New Hampshire and one-time social security head who is now a director of the International Labor office; Ray Atherton, a career diplomat now acting chief of the European division of the state department; and a former counselor at the London embassy, and former Ambassador Bullitt.

Evasive As To Future
As for Kennedy's future, the retiring ambassador spoke only in general terms in his statement announcing the resignation.

"My plan is, after a short holiday," he said, "to devote my efforts to what seems to me the greatest cause in the world today, and means, if successful, the preservation of the American form of democracy. That cause is to help the President keep the United States out of war."

Perfect Steering Control Is Necessary During Slippery Winter Season

DODGE DEALERS SHOW BIG GAIN

Signs Are Good For Winter Business, Officials Say

Dodge dealers throughout the country are rolling up an interesting succession of week-to-week delivery increases culminating in a retail sales gain of 187 per cent as between the first and last weeks of October—according to information confirmed by Forest H. Akers, Dodge vice-president and director of sales.

The sales records are additionally significant in the definiteness with which they upset the opinion of dealers and salesmen that the approach of winter justifies a drop in automobile sales.

Deliveries of Dodge passenger cars by dealers for the week ending October 5, exceeded the sales total for a preceding week by 31.8 per cent. Deliveries for the week ending October 12 were 41.9 per cent greater than in the immediately preceding week. The upward trend in Dodge passenger car sales continued for the week ending October 19 when still another gain of 34.5 per cent was achieved.

The sales momentum increased also for the week ending October 26 when deliveries gained 36 per cent over the previous week. And the sales report week ending November 2 shows another advance of 10.6 per cent.

Akers, in commenting on the situation, is of the opinion that this steady increase in deliveries augurs well for a seasonally satisfactory business during the coming winter months.

Rhythmates Play At Metzger

A combination that is unusual and very pleasing is entertaining this week at the Silver Cocktail room in the Metzger Hotel. Known as "Rhythmates," they are indeed all the name implies. Esther Harsh is featured with her harp music. Jack Stephens is at the Hammond organ and Hardie Jenkins operates a complete orchestra set of traps.

CHRYSLER CUTS BLOWOUT RISK

New Safety Rim Adopted; Repeated Tests Reveal Value

Blowout hazards, which statistics prove are the cause of a very important percentage of serious automobile accidents, have been greatly reduced in the 1941 Chrysler cars according to Don Smith of the Smith garage, local Chrysler dealers, by the adoption of a new safety rim. With this rim in use a flat tire has the same traction as a normal tire with 10 pounds of air pressure when the car is traveling 40 miles an hour.

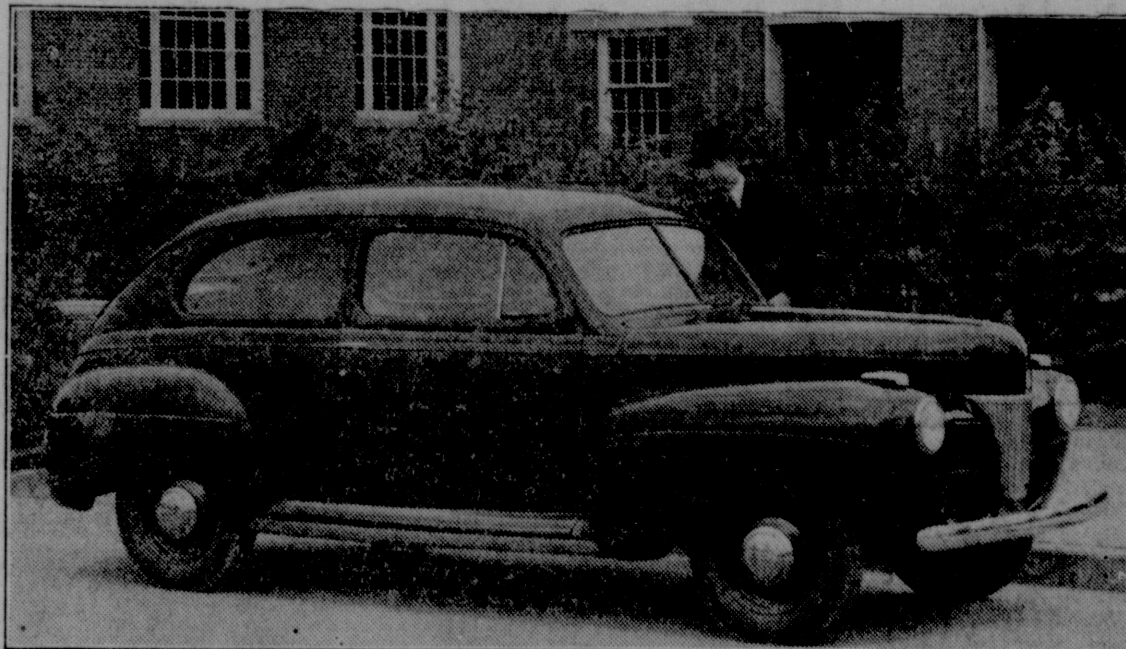

This means that in the event of a blowout, the tire will support the weight of the car until the driver is able to bring it to a stop, meanwhile retaining enough steering and braking control to handle the vehicle and keep it on the road and in the proper traffic lane. The principal hazard of a blowout, of course, is losing control of the car so that it swerves either off the road or into oncoming traffic.

In exterior appearance the new rim is little different from previous types. The difference lies in a "hump" placed on each side of the bead so that the bead of the tire is held securely in the bead seat of the rim. Without this hump the tendency is for a tire when deflated to slip off the seat and into the center well of the rim.

On an old-style rim, when one of the beads had reached the center well, it generally was not long until the other bead slipped over the outside of the rim, thus exposing the tube and making the car difficult to control.

Chrysler corporation engineers have made repeated tests in which tires were blown out by dynamite caps when the car was traveling at various speeds. In every case, the hump kept the bead from slipping into the well and the car remained in control and could be brought to a safe stop from any speed. No special skill on the part of the driver is required to retain control and stop the car so long as the bead is held on its seat, even though the tire is deflated.

Build Floors For Long Life, Urges Damascus Lumber Company

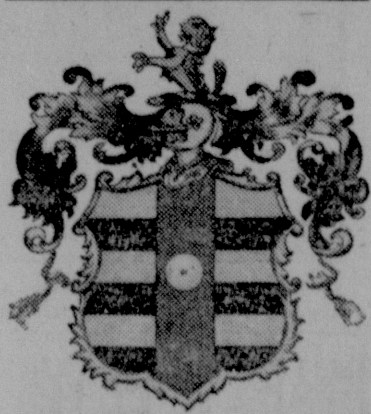

One of the reasons for the popularity of wood flooring is the diversity of characteristics found among the various species. No matter which one of the many different forms or floor surfaces it is desired to build, lumber from one or more species is available to conform to the most exacting requirements.

To assure maximum life only thoroughly seasoned lumber should be used. Its use will retard to a great extent shrinkage of the wood and eliminate the frequently complained-of cracks between flooring strips.

The sub-flooring boards may be laid diagonally. This has two advantages: first, the entire floor system and framework of the building is stiffened and braced, and second, it permits laying the finished floor perpendicular to the joists.

Finish flooring may be had in a pleasing variety of textures, depths, colors and patterns completely eliminating any impression of monotony in floor design. Strip, plank, random width, herringbone and block or parquet type flooring are a few suggested patterns from which you may select your floor. One novel effect in flooring may be obtained by combining two, or more species of wood of different

DODGE ADOPTS COAT-OF-ARMS

A new radiator medallion, taking the form of the coat-of-arms pictured above, has been adopted by Dodge for 1941. The coat-of-arms, a design of great beauty and rich colorings, is of authentic origin, dating from 1306 when one of the earliest ancestors of the founders of the Dodge business was "granted arms" and given the Barony of Coldingham in Scotland.

The floor should not be laid until all plastering and interior work has been completed.

Individual taste, service requirements and relative costs will determine the choice of your flooring, and the Damascus Lumber Co., Damascus, can readily secure the style you select.

GRATE BEE LINE METHODS SURE

Special Equipment Restores Car To Factory Specifications

The driver's control of his car, through the all-important steering assembly, is vital, naturally, at all times, but particularly so during the winter months when traction, even at its best, is none too certain on ice-glazed streets and highways.

Consequently, it is tremendously important that car control be as nearly perfect as mechanics can make it.

After a car has been on the road for some time, wear and minor bumps will tend to loosen up the steering assembly. Running into curb stones when parking, or a skid, may throw the front wheels out of line, produce shimmy and other effects resulting in hard and uncertain steering.

It will pay the motorist, then, who is accustomed to fingertip control, to check his car occasionally. This is a minor item, as far as he is concerned himself, because it can be done at little expense by trained workmen at the Grate Bee Line equipment.

This machine takes care of body axle and wheel straightening and does it according to factory specifications.

All of this work is done "cold" and the temper of the metal is not hurt. That's one of the big advantages of Bee Line equipment—that and the fact that the car can be made as nearly perfect as it is possible to get it.

Drop in at Grate's if you're having difficulties of this type, and find out how easy it is to get straightened out.

Experienced Car Drivers Avoid Too Much Gear Shifting

The growing practice among drivers of straight-eight cars of shifting from second gear to high and ignoring first gear is basically sound, according to Mr. Dunlap, local Pontiac dealer.

Intelligent use of the gears of a modern car makes the shift lever almost a baton in the hands of an experienced driver, directing his motor in individual situations almost as a conductor directs an orchestra. Another shifting tip supplied by the Pontiac engineers is the "taxi-driver" shift—from first directly to third. Both of these shifts can be accomplished with a savings of gasoline and tire wear, it is stated.

For instance, when a straight-eight motor is warmed up and on level ground, the second-to-third shift provides maximum get-away and first gear is not used. When a fast get-away is not important the taxi-shift is indicated. Keep the car in first gear until about 15 miles-per-hour is attained. Then just flip the gear lever into third gear.

Motoring conditions are not always the same, engineers agree, so exercise personal choice by avoiding overshifting and pace your motor to driving conditions.

Publicity Stunt—but Good!

Yes, it was a publicity stunt, that strip picketing of a movie studio in Hollywood by Gerta Rozan, who peeled down to her brassiere and panties after announcing a protest against a new motion picture in which her part had been eliminated. But it was a good one, and the picture possibilities were covered by the photographers—even the panties as shown above. Miss Rozan had threatened to go all the way—or so was the plan—when producers halted the show, promised her a new role.

Five Major Teams Have Perfect Record; Texas Aggies Drop From Top After Last Saturday's Defeat

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—There are not enough games left on the 1940 football schedule to have any great effect on the season as a whole, so it's about time to summarize the results.

The final big week of the campaign produced only one major change in the leaders. That was when the mighty Texas Aggies were beaten, 7-0 by Texas for their first defeat this season. It kept the Aggies from winning their second Southwest conference title outright and put them out of the running for the mythical national championship.

Next Saturday's game between Southern Methodist and Rice will, unless they tie, decide which team will tie the Aggies for the conference.

Teams Meet In Capital To Decide Issue; O'Brien Is Star

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The Chicago Bears and the Washington Redskins will battle it out at Washington Sunday for the National Professional Football championship. The Bears clinched the Western division championship and the Redskins won the Eastern sectional title yesterday. The Bears whipped the Chicago Cardinals, 32 to 23, and Washington turned back Philadelphia's Eagles 13 to 6.

Next Sunday's big battle will mark the first time since 1937 that the Bears and Washington have been in the final playoff. Washington won then.

O'Brien Sets Record
Little Davey O'Brien of the Eagles bowed out magnificently in yesterday's game. He completed 33 passes out of 60 tries for a new record, bettering the mark of 23 set by Baugh this season. O'Brien plans to go to work for the Federal Bureau of Investigation within a few days.

Two other players also set marks in this duel, which gave Washington a final standing of nine wins and two defeats. Don Looney, Eagle end, caught 14 passes to break the old mark of 8 for a single game. Baugh turned in a record smashing punt, 85 yards from the line of scrimmage, to shatter Parker Hall's mark of 80.

Packers Tie Rams
A victory for the Green Bay Packers over Cleveland, combined with a defeat of the Bears by the Cardinals, would have forced a playoff for the Western section title. But the Packers could do no better than tie the Rams at 13-13.

The Brooklyn Dodgers whipped the New York Giants 14 to 6. The win gave the Dodgers runner-up honors in the league's eastern section.

BOWLING RESULTS

Two exhibition contests and one postponed Posttime league game were rolled at the Grate alleys last Saturday night. In each of these matches the Salem fives were victorious.

The Ford V-8's defeated the Wooster M.O.N.E.L.L.'s 2422 to 2222. Orr led the winners with scores of 180, 179, 182 for a 541 total while Davey knocked best for the losers with a 494 total.

The Althouse Motors gained two victories during the weekend, winning from Reed's Mayflowers 2322 pins to 2227, and trouncing Berger's Sohioans of East Liverpool 2703 to 2618. Bishop was the star of the Motor crew in the Bergeren match as he knocked out a 198, 246, 161 for a 605 total.

In a postponed Pastime league contest, the Salem Labels trounced the Columbiana Sohioans all three games. C. Miller led the label outfit with scores of 151, 156, 234 for a total of 541.

RED CATS ARE JUBILANT OVER SUN BOWL BID

Nerve And Speed Are Reserve's Biggest Assets This Year

CLEVELAND, Dec. 2.—Western Reserve university's football team will leave here Dec. 26 for its place in the Sun bowl at El Paso, Tex.

The Cleboans will be entertained by the Arizona State Teachers on New Year's day. Formalities of invitation were completed yesterday by the Sun Carnival association.

Coach William (Bill) Edwards notified his complete squad of 23 players to resume practice Dec. 9. He said they would leave here in time to get in both sightseeing and practice in Texas.

About Cleveland's university circle there was jubilation that to Reserve had come a national honor to reward years of good records.

Not Reserve's Greatest
True, Reserve is not one of the country's "big" football teams. True, it does not have players "in the money." True, no one will claim this year's team is one of Reserve's greatest.

None has played harder, however; none has gone farther on nerve and speed.

"It's a great trip for the boys and that's the real reason we're going," said Karl Davis, athletics director. "If they didn't want to play we wouldn't have accepted."

Lost Only To Dayton
Western Reserve lost only one game this year, a 20-to-12 affair at Dayton and won the Big Four championship. The Tempe, Ariz., team lost one game too, a 17-to-0 beating by Hardin-Simmons. The Arizona also had ties with Texas Mines and Gonzaga.

The Sun Carnival association estimated 15,000 spectators would attend. Reserve is guaranteed $5,000 and possibly a percentage of gate receipts. The trip will cost $4,000, Davis said, and Reserve's share probably will not exceed $7,000.

Four Seniors Participate
The Sun bowl will be a "borrowed" game for the four senior backfield sparklers. They are: Dick Booth, halfback whom his coach praises as a candidate for little A.J.-America selection; Johnny Ries, another halfback, known to fellow students as a one-man team; Steve Belichick, fullback, of whom Coach Edwards says, "He's a fullback until he gets through the line and then he's a halfback," and Paul Anderson, quarterback.

The line averages 194 pounds and replacements are few.

Reed Resigns From Canton Grid Post
CANTON, Dec. 2.—The Canton board of education is expected to act tonight on the resignation of football Coach John Reed, who said he was quitting "for the best interest of athletics at McKinlay high school." Reed's teams in five years won 39 games, tied two and lost seven but Canton fans have complained about his five straight losses to Massillon.

Cornhuskers Make First Journey To Pasadena For New Year's Day Grid Tilt

Nebraska, Defeated 13-7 By Minnesota, Has Never Played In West Coast Classic; Stanford Is Pacific Champ

PALO ALTO, Calif., Dec. 2.—Stanford university, unbeaten and untied Pacific Coast conference champion, and the University of Nebraska, once-defeated titleholder of the Big Six, will clash Jan. 1 in the annual Rose bowl football game at Pasadena.

Announcement of Stanford's invitation and Nebraska's acceptance for the game was made here last night.

Al Masters, director of athletics, said he would leave by plane today for Pasadena to set up the ticket organization. His office already has been deluged with applications for seats, some 90,000 of which are available.

Nebraska, defeated 13-7 by Minnesota in this year's opening game, never has played in the Rose bowl. Stanford, which closed its regular season last Saturday by beating University of California 13-7, last appeared in Pasadena in 1936, when the Indians beat Southern Methodist, 7-0.

Stanford, with a new coach in the person of Clark Shaughnessy, former Chicago mentor, made a phenomenal sweep this year after a dismal 1939 season which netted only one victory.

Stanford started strongly this season by crushing the University of San Francisco 27-0 and bowled over successfully Oregon, 13-0, Santa Clara, 7-3, Washington State 23-14, Southern California 21-7, University of California at Los Angeles, 20-14, Washington 29-10, Oregon State 28-14 and California 13-7.

Sees Tough Game
The Western Representative in the Rose bowl, where the New Year's day "bowl" games began, always is the leading team of the Pacific Coast conference.

Masters said he believed Stanford would meet one of the nation's strongest teams in Nebraska, despite the Cornhuskers' setback by Minnesota.

The Cornhuskers bounced back from their defeat to complete their schedule with the following victories: Indiana, 13-7; Kansas, 52-2; Missouri, 20-7; Oklahoma, 13-0; Iowa, 14-6; Pittsburgh, 9-7; Iowa State, 21-12; Kansas State, 20-0.

Major Lawrence "Biff" Jones, Nebraska coach, said his team would train at Lincoln until after the Christmas holidays, then move to Arizona. Stanford will train here for the present.

Another Cold Wave Scheduled Tonight

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The greater part of the midwest, U. S. weather forecasters said today, will be assailed by another cold wave tonight.

The cold wave, which was described as moving southeastward from the northern plains states, already has lowered the mercury to below zero readings in North Dakota and Minnesota. Last night's lowest temperature was 18 below zero in Devil's Lake, N. D.

The forecasters said temperatures in the Chicago area would drop to about 5 above zero tonight. Only light snowfalls would accompany the severe weather, they added.

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa.—A polite "thank you" to a waiter is often as important to him as the tip left behind, a Westminster College psychologist believes. Franklin J. Shaw of the Westminster department of psychology, said it is poor taste and poor psychology to cause "the service is to be taken for granted."

for a THRIFTY Christmas

Yes, call me "Sandy" Claus if you like, but a thrifty idea is worth considering—even at Christmas time. . . Get your garments Miracleaned for the Holidays and they will seem like "new". Miracleaning starts right by thoroughly ridding the fabric of every trace of soil, then it restores "new" texture to give the fabric body and life—and last there is the "fashion" finish. Miracleaning is a better cleaning, but it is long-run economy. Just try it!
